“Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you?” Luke 12:27

Unleashing the Potential of Prayer

This week we continue our series of sermons exploring PRAYER and we are delighted that Maeve Whitchurch (SEBA) will be bringing God's word to us.

PETITION

The key verse this morning is Matthew 6: 11: "Give us this day our daily bread" and we'll unpack the significance of asking God in prayer.

Questions to reflect on:

- Although God knows our need, He still wants us to articulate them to Him. Why do you think this is the case?
- We can often feel it's easier to believe God can change things in our hearts rather than believing he can change external things. Do you agree and if so, why might that be?
- How often do you ask God for what you want as well as what you need?

(Moderator)

Devoted to Scripture

"I cry to you, Lord; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living." Psalm 42:5, NIV

Devoted to Prayer

Father God, we pray that you shed your light upon us so that we live, not only on earth, but in you, the eternal and living One. May our lives be drawn into eternity, to the praise of your name. May we take your Word to heart so that we can become true men and women, able to bear everything in your name and to remain in the love you want to give us. Rouse us to become true men and women at the side of Jesus Christ our Saviour, who has been patient in all things with all people. Be with us at all times, Lord our God. You are our help and our refuge. Amen.
