Welcome!

TRANSFORMATIONAL CHURCH

Jesus said “I will build my Church” but what did He have in mind and is who we are a good reflection of that expectation? And what are our expectations of being Church, both whilst we are together on a Sunday, as well as when we go our separate ways, living as “the church” wherever He takes us?

Today we will be exploring the connection between these 3 images, and hopefully, inspired by the Holy Spirit, we will depart better equipped for living a life which reflects the life of Jesus wherever He takes us in the days ahead.

Looking Ahead

Gift Aid Donations

It has been recommended by the BU, that future gift aid claims should show the full forenames of the donors to avoid errors being made by HMRC. If you support our Church, and we claim the gift aid, would you please give Barbara these details.

The Leaders have a very important meeting on Monday, July 22nd concerning the Home Mission Grant. Do pray that the meeting proceeds in accordance with God’s will.

Devoted to Prayer

Father God, kindle true light in our hearts and minds, that we may recognize what we are and become free of everything false and dishonest. Let this light of righteousness go through all nations so that people no longer use empty words when they talk of "mercy" and "truth." Grant that your mercy and your truth find the right soil and bear fruit. May they find soil prepared by you, for you judge us and make right what is wrong in our life. We thank you that whatever our experiences are, we may still say, “Our merciful God has spread out His wings to protect us!” Amen.

“At that time I will answer the prayers of my people Israel. I will make rain fall on the earth, and the earth will produce grain and grapes and olives. I will establish my people in the land and make them prosper. I will show love to those who were called “Unloved” and to those who were called “Not-My-People” I will say, “You are my people,” and they will answer, “You are our God.”

Hos 2: v21~23 (GNT)
